LUNA'S

Bar Highlights

2018 Clarence House Pinot Blanc Coal River Tas 12

It's not often that we see Pinot Blanc outside its natural home of Alsace France, where this wine is inspired from. Made in the clever hands of Anna Pooley (of Pooley wines) this wine shows all the hallmarks of the variety, aromatic, showing white flowers and fruits with a hint of spice and a dry finish.

2018 Quealy 'Lina Lool' Friulano Field Blend, Mornington Vic 14

An insane blend of Friulano, Moscato Giallo, Riesling and Malvasia d'Istria, largely modelled on the natural wines made in Friuli Italy. This wine has a broad and rich textured approach, thanks largely to extended skin contact and further ageing in amphoras and is a delight with cheese and white proteins.

2017 Henty Farm Pinot Meunier Henty Vic 14.5

A great alternative to Pinot Noir, being often referred to as its pourer cousin! Expect lots of red and black fruit aromatics followed with a lighter but engaging body of good acidity and soft tannins.

2016 Fighting Gully Road Aglianico Beechworth Vic 16.5

Fighting Gully Road, Aglianico is a passion project, a labour of love - each bottle of this aromatic, medium-bodied wine is like a little treasure, one to enjoy with cured ham or antipasti and daydreams of Sicily.
